Four Men to Discuss International Affairs

Great issues of the day will be discussed by the miniature "Security Council," which will be presented October 14, in the College auditorium.

The members of the council are Peter von Zahn, Germany's greatest television and radio commentator; John C. Metcalfe, editor of "Background," Washington newsletter on Foreign Affairs, who also served as chairman of the Council; Colin Jackson, distinguished British television and radio commentator; Hon. Ben C. Limb, Korean Ambassador to the United Nations and former foreign minister of the Republic of Korea.

It's a Four-Way Debate

The miniature "Security Council" is not a panel discussion, but a parade of four distinguished speakers and each speaker will discuss and add to the four-way debate of great issues of the day.

Each speaker has behind him a record of several thousand professional lectures in both the United States and abroad.

To Analyze Latest Developments

The distinguished speakers perform on a split-second timing, presenting the background to big issues, personalities and anecdotal material, and an analysis of the latest developments over a swift moving show.

Different points of view will be taken by the speakers during the controversial discussion and the entertaining question and answer period.

No lengthy speeches will be given by any one speaker. The discussion will begin the moment the program opens and the debate will end with the audience participating in a question and answer session.

Ninety Girls Join The Sophistocats

Nearly ninety girls have become members of the newest organization on campus, the Sophistocats. These vivacious girls will help lead school spirit at the Bearcats' football games.

All upperclass women are encouraged to join the Sophistocats. Freshman girls will have the opportunity to join after initiation has been completed.

Pom-poms of green and white crepe paper will be carried by all members of the organization. These pom-poms were made under the supervision of Darlene Dilks, chairman. The girls have chosen "Hurrah for the Bearcats" as their song.

Under the direction of Peg Riley and Carol Gamble, a large banner has been made which will be displayed during the game in the section reserved for the Sophistocats.

Sophistocats will attend the Kirksville game as a body. This game will be played in Kirksville, Friday, October 25.

No officers have been elected for the new organization. Mrs. Marjorie Person is the sponsor.

College Debaters To Study "Labor"

"Resolved: That the requirement of membership in a labor organization as a condition of employment should be illegal"—this resolution sounds like a jumbled mass of words to the casual reader, but to thousands of college students throughout the nation it will be a subject for study, thinking, and research.

Mr. George A. Hinshaw, debate coach, has announced that the above resolution is to be the inter-collegiate debate topic for this year. This means that in this college, as in other colleges and universities over the nation, debate teams will be formed, and this topic will be discussed in the debate tournaments.

Classes to Elect 1957-58 Leaders

Sophomore, junior, and senior classes will hold elections of officers this noon at 12:30. Sophomores will meet in room 224, juniors in room 225, and seniors in room 301.

Student senators Larry Brown, sophomore; Harlan Higginbotham, junior; and Norma Long, senior, will be in charge of the election in the event that last year's class officers do not appear.

Miller to Speak At F. T. A. Meeting Tomorrow in Union

Dr. Leon Miller, chairman of the education department, will speak to high school Future Teachers of America members at a meeting to be held tomorrow afternoon in the Lakeview Room of the Union. Dr. Miller's talk will concern the forming of a district organization of high school F. T. A. groups. Members of the college chapter are expected to attend.

Delegates from the college chapter of F. T. A. to the state teachers' convention in St. Louis, Nov. 7 and 8, are Mary Jane Bridgewater, Delvee Cramer, Eva Lee Hess, Reta Peterson, Margaret Myrtue, Betty Wagner, Paul Kerber, and Emmett Mason.

Leon Walker Receives New Scholarship Award

Leon Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Walker, Barnard, recently received the first Condon Scholarship Award to Northwest Missouri State College.

The $50 semester award was given on the basis of scholarship and National Guard membership by Edward V. Condon, local businessman and owner of the Condon Corner Drug in Maryville.

Office Abounds in Lost, Found

Have you lost a pair of pajamas with a mystery book in the pocket of the tops? If you have, the place to go to get it back is in the Lost and Found department of the college.

This little-known department has everything from powder puffs to overshoes, and billfolds to wedding rings. A more unbelievable array of treasures, or junk, is almost impossible to find elsewhere.

Books that have been lost range from "The United States Emigration Report" to "The Bobsey Twins Cheat at Poker." Symbols of romances which have failed are found in this department. A boy's class ring, tapered to adjust for a smaller sized finger, is in the collection of items. The ring might have been thrown away as a once glorious romance passed away. A bracelet inscribed, E. B. TO JOY, might have been discarded by a girl as her fancy passed to some other lucky

Chairman Announces New Judging System In Homecoming Events

Point systems to be used in judging entries in the various Homecoming events were announced by Dr. John Harr when the Homecoming committee met Monday, September 30.

The organization with the greatest number of points will be awarded the trophy for this year. The organization that has accumulated the greatest number of points by the end of 1958 will become the permanent possessor of the trophy.

Points for winners in the Variety Show, house decorations, parade, and all-round participation and contribution will be awarded on the basis of first place, 5 points; second, 4; third, 3; fourth, 2; and fifth place and all other entries, 1 point. One point will be awarded for each function held for alumni.

Parade Points to Be Accumulated
The winners of the points for the parade will be determined by the accumulation of points in each division of the parade.

Points awarded for each division of the parade will be as follows: Division I, beauty float—first, 15 points; second, 12; third, 10; fourth, 8; fifth, 6; and honorable mention, 3. Division II, humor float—first, 12; second, 10; third, 8; fourth, 6; fifth, 4; and honorable mention, 2.

Homecoming events will begin Thursday evening, Oct. 31, with the variety show and queen coronation.

lad. Other ideas come forth as one looks at the unclaimed articles.

Where is this fascinating department? The Lost & Found department is in the business office. Anyone who has lost something on this campus should go to the business office to claim the lost article.

Everyone who has found something on the campus should turn it in at the business office. So far, so many articles have been found and not reclaimed by their owners that finding storage space for the lost items is getting to be a problem.

"Don't stop coming to the office after you come once," was the advice of Mr. Luther Belcher, College treasurer. "Sometimes articles are not turned in until three or four weeks after they are lost; so please check often."

In the meantime, this reporter is wondering whether the person who lost the pj's is getting cold at night.

One Man's Shadow

Casts Its Light

What if Columbus hadn't discovered America? Where would you be if the good ships Pinta, Nina, and Santa Maria had been unable to stand the trip?

Just 465 years ago this Saturday Christopher Columbus set foot on this continent. In those four and one-half centuries the continent he discovered has become the home of one of the greatest civilizations on earth.

If our ancestors had not come to America, would the people that make up our college, our state, our nation be, perhaps, citizens of dark Africa, or war-torn Europe, or Communist China.

Aren't you glad Columbus made it?

New Faculty . . .

Brief sketches of the eighteen new faculty members who joined the staff this year were begun in the past two issues and are completed this week.

Miss Margaret Prince has accepted the position as home economics instructor. Miss Prince was instructor at the Eastern Illinois State College, Charleston, Illinois. She received her M. S. at the University of Illinois at Urbana, Illinois.

Mr. M. T. Sheldon served as superintendent of the Fort Osage High School at Independence. He received his M. A. in education at the University of Nebraska and will be on the education staff here.

Mrs. Alice Gordon Wilson received her M. A. at the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor. Mrs. Wilson was formerly associated with the Berea College at Berea, Kentucky. She will teach speech and English.

There are four new members on the administrative staff. They are Mrs. L. G. Blatt, Dean of Women; Mr. Jack Cole, Assistant Dean of Men; Miss Nellie O. Dye, Librarian; and Mrs. M. T. Sheldon, Director of Food Services.

Mrs. Blatt received her B. S. in education from Illinois State Normal University at Normal, Illinois, and did graduate work at the State University of Iowa and Montana State University.

Mr. Cole received his A. B. from Northwest Missouri State College, and has been pastor of the Ravenwood and Sheridan Methodist churches. He was assistant to Miss Lois Simons two years.

Miss Nellie O. Dye has been Librarian at the Northeast Junior College, Sterling, Columbia. She received her Master of Science at the Kansas State Teachers College, Pittsburg, Kansas.

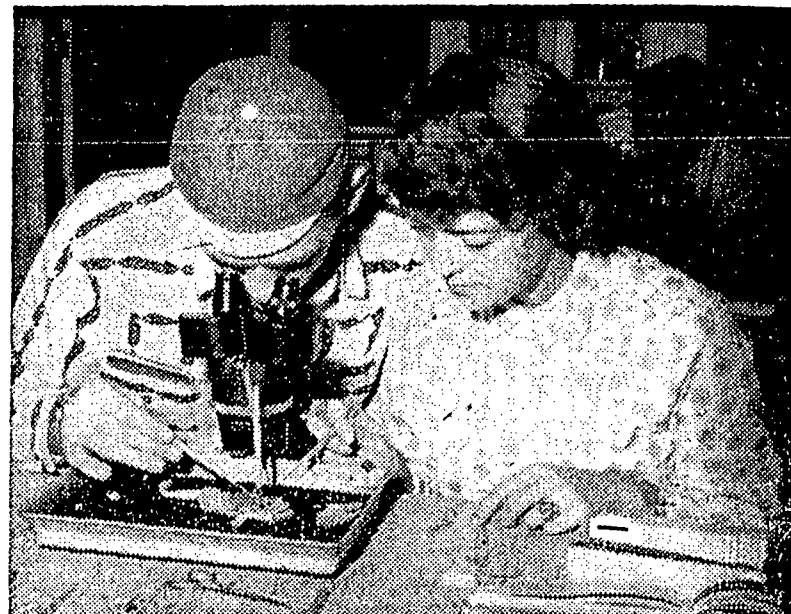

Mrs. M. T. Sheldon was formerly home economics instructor at the Ruskin high school at Hickman Mills. Mrs. Sheldon received her B. S. at the South Dakota State College, and did graduate work at the University of Nebraska at Lincoln.

The Stroller . . .

WHEN SI SKELTON, supervisor of Atchison County schools, visited the campus last Wednesday, he commented that all the hammering and pounding that can be heard throughout the Administration building reminded him of his first day of school here in 1910. The building hadn't been entirely completed and the workmen were putting the finishing touches on it, so that the sounds of hammers echoed down the halls much as they do today.

THE STROLLER wants to thank President J. W. Jones for the piece of birthday cake his honor gave him to help celebrate the President's anniversary Oct. 1. He hopes you had a happy birthday, Mr. President, and may you have many more!

MANY PEOPLE have exclaimed to The Stroller about the beautiful roses in front of the Administration building. So he went to examine them himself. He decided that those people certainly were right. The colorful roses add a touch of brightness that makes the front view of the Administration building doubly attractive.

ONE FROG'S AFTERLIFE . . . Carol Lilly, sophomore, and Mike McDowell, freshman, must believe that two heads are better than one when it comes to dissecting frogs. Mike is comparing Carol's findings with the discoveries he made with another microscope on his own frog.

Turtles, Fish, Snakes---

Biology Department Possesses Specimens and Study Equipment

Turtles, fish, snakes, frogs, worms, plus a pig, a dog, a chick, and an armadillo, in their different stages of embryonic development, can all be found right here on campus—in preserved form in the biology laboratory.

Insects, sea stars, an armadillo shell, animals of the mollusca and annelida families, as well as several small skeletons and an aquarium of live guppies are on hand for the inspection by students. One eye-catching bottled display is a baby pig that was meant to be twins, but didn't quite get divided. The pig has two sets of legs and tails, but only one head. It was bottled in formaldehyde and preserved in its original state.

Many Charts, Slides

These samples are used to help teach twelve general laboratory classes during the year. The department also has numerous charts, hundreds of botanical and zoological slides, and enough microscopes for two sections of laboratory work to be held the same hour.

Included in these microscopes are 62 compound microscopes including 16 Japanese-made ones with mechanical stages, oil immersion objectives and condensers. The department has 37 binocular wide-field dissecting microscopes and 6 field glasses for outdoor classes. This equipment is valuable money-wise, too, as each microscope is a costly instrument.

Sterilizer for Bacteriology

This year a new balance was added to the department's other extensive equipment. A large sterilizer is located in the botany laboratory, mainly for use in the bacteriology classes. Botanists make good use of the herbarium, a cabinet that contains hundreds of plant specimens. If a regulated temperature is required for an experiment, the incubator is used.

In terms of working space and teaching staff, the department has advanced, too. Mr. William Garrett, now chairman of the department, joined the staff in 1927 and until 12 years later, when Professor Kenneth Simons began to instruct, the teaching in the biology field was a one-man affair. In those earliest years, the classroom and laboratory space consisted of only one room with only the desk as Mr. Garrett's office.

Three Full-time Teachers

In 1938 another room, Room 224, was put into use. Professor Simons left for the services in '41 or '42 and Dr. Irene Mueller came in 1943 to replace him. In 1955 when Mr. Myles Grabau began teaching half-time in the department, the staff increased to three instructors. Starting this fall, he is teaching biology full-time. Mr. Garrett's office and the botany laboratory were added in 1951 or '52, and this year Room 225 is being used for a classroom.

As for the future of the department, Mr. Garrett says that the biology classes may also occupy the space across the hall. Room 221 may be used for advanced biology and Room 222 for an all-purpose laboratory. An effort will be made to include some laboratory work in all departmental classes.

Missouri Schools Need Teachers

Two hundred nineteen teacher vacancies were reported in Missouri high schools on opening day of school. One hundred thirteen of these were in elementary school, and 106 were in secondary school.

Teaching vacancies were in all the secondary fields, but music, art, English, and science had the largest number of vacancies. Most of these vacancies will be filled by persons not meeting the usual standards of preparation.

Teachers' salaries in Missouri this year are approximately $270 above the average for 1956-57.

Difficulty in retaining teachers in Missouri schools may be caused by the increasing enrollments, shifting of population, and district reorganization. Older women are teaching in the classrooms because many of those completing preparation for teaching do not accept teaching positions.

'Cats Meet Bears in Conference Opener

Team Takes Road For Night Contest

Continuing their road trip, the Bearcats travel to Springfield this Saturday for a night contest. Springfield, the league leader this week in all games played, will be the first of five conference opponents for the Maryville Bearcats.

Two of the top scorers in the league belong to the Bears of Springfield in the forms of Thomas with a total of eighteen points and Rybel with nine points on one touchdown and three extra markers. Three other Bears have scored at least one touchdown.

For the Bearcats it is Kenne Stevens leading the way with seven points and Al Gastor, Elmer Clark, and Fred Fuhr following closely behind with one six pointer apiece.

In the course of this season the Bears have won over Emporia State 33-13, lost to Pittsburg, Kansas, 13-0, and have a 7-7 tie with William Jewell. The Bearcats are still looking for their first win of the season after losing two and tying one.

Bearcat "B" Team Falls to Scotties At Highland 27-6

Defensive prowess displayed by Highland Jr. College was too much for the Bearcat B team as they fell to the Scotties 27 to 6 at Highland, Kansas, October 1.

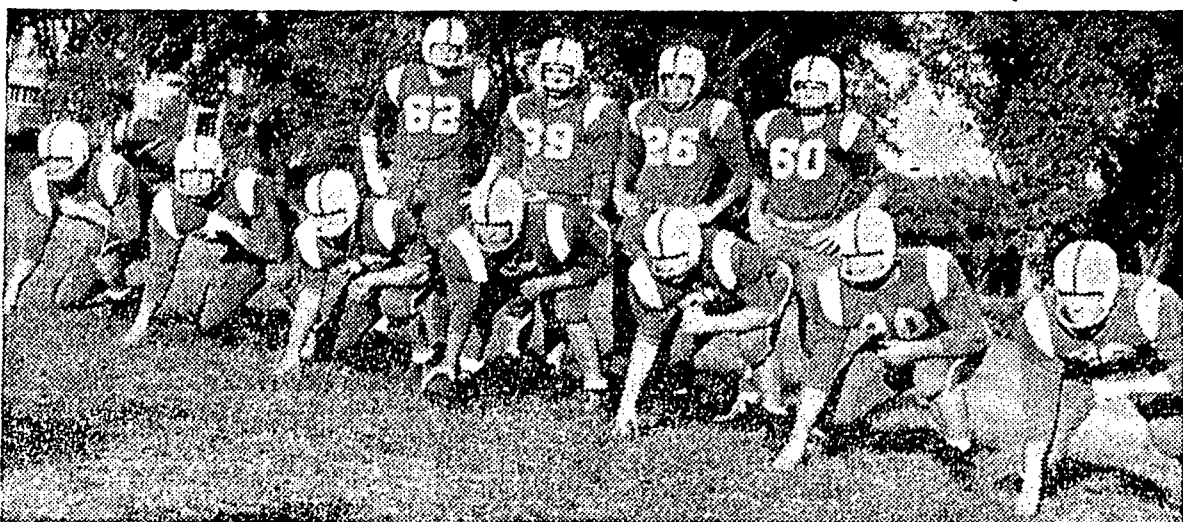

The only Bearcat tally came in the last quarter when Max Ross went into the promised land from the five yard line.

The Scotties picked up 303 total yards. They gained 200 yards on the ground and picked up 103 through the air.

The starting lineup for the Bearcats was Duane Abbott, center; Ed Kuenzi, Delbert Lund, guards; Don Vawter, Ron Partridge, tackles; Dennis Niel, Ralph O'Riley, ends; Hank Nardone, quarterback; Bob Maxwell, Joe Monachino, halfbacks; and Corwin Ingram, fullback.

Box Score	Highland	Maryville B
First Downs	8	4
Rushing yardage	200	-20
Passing yardage	103	109
Passes attempted	7	17
Passes completed	5	5
Passes intercepted	2	0

Score by Quarters	Highland	Maryville B
7-13-7-0-Total	27	6
Highland	7-13-7-0-Total	27
Maryville B	0-0-0-6-Total	6

'Cats Tie Cards In 19-19 Battle

Determined to repeat last year's triumph over the Cardinals of William Jewell the Bearcats had to settle for a 19-19 tie as both teams stayed close to the ground throughout most of the game Saturday night.

After intercepting a pass on the 'Cats 42 yard line the Cardinals quickly moved to their first touchdown with Ralph Kincaid carrying the ball over from the 1 yard line.

Saggau Finishes Drive

Rising to the occasion, the Bearcats took the following kick-off and went 63 yards as Henry Saggau finished the drive with a 1 yard plunge for the tally just as the second quarter opened.

Kenne Stevens added what proved to be an important point to put the Bearcats ahead 7-6. Adding one more touchdown in the second period on another 1 yard plunge by Saggau, the Bearcats left the field with a 13-6 halftime lead.

Bob Hawkins quickly brought the Cardinals to a position in which they could tie the game, but the try for the extra point was wide of the mark.

In the fourth quarter the Maryville fans had something both to shout and cry about. Henry Saggau found Harold Wilkinson in the open and the play went for a 34 yard touchdown.

With about five minutes remaining in the game the Bearcats recovered a Jewell fumble on their own 22 yard line but on the next play gave the ball back to the Cardinals on the 19 yard line. On the first play after the fumble, a pass carried the ball to the two yard line from where Ralph Stone carried over for the touchdown. Bob Berryhill booted the extra point to tie the game 19-19.

Plays on Marine Team

Lt. Mike Hutcheon, 1957 graduate and former M club member, is stationed at the Marine Corps School, Quantico, Virginia. He plays end position on the Marine Corps football team along with some who have been All-American players.

The thumbnail sketch from the official program describes Mike as "big, fast, catches a pass well. Will definitely give the team added strength at the flank position."

Schedule Is Tough

Non-conference foes continue to dominate the football scene as the record now stands at four wins, eleven losses, and one tie, a record which, by any standards, isn't anything to shout about.

Only one-half of the conference teams produced victories, with Springfield beating Emporia State 33-14, Cape Girardeau rolling over Eastern Illinois 41-0, and Kirksville whipping Graceland 40-7 in a Friday night affair.

Graceland, incidentally, is playing its first season against four year schools since stepping up from the ranks of a junior college.

Springfield is currently leading the conference in all games played with one win, one loss, and one tie to their credit.

Once again last week, all games were scheduled with non-conference schools. This coming weekend will see the beginning of conference play, with the honor of playing the first game going to Warrensburg and Rolla in an afternoon tilt.

All others will be played at 8 p.m. Kirksville will open at Cape Girardeau and the Bearcats will travel to Springfield.

Random Shots . . .

Although suffering a loss of 27-6 in their opening game with Highland Junior College, the B team showed signs of being a promising ball team. The outstanding feature of the game was the pass catching of Joe Monachino and the hard running of Max Ross. Ross scored the lone tally for the "B" Cats.

Returning lettermen and new prospective players reported to head basketball coach, Bob Gregory, on September 30. The meeting was called to discuss the coming schedule and training techniques.

Thanks to the M-Club, it looks as if freshmen initiation will be another successful one. The freshmen will undoubtedly be glad to see their Big Day roll around.

Bearcats Whip Mules

Monday night the "B" team beat the Warrensburg Mules "B" team 27-6. It was the first win for the "B" squad.

Their next game will be with William Jewell's "B" team Thursday night, October 17, at Liberty.
